

QUICK-SERVE RESTAURANT

According to LinkedIn, about 17 percent of restaurant and retail employees leave their jobs every year, making them a high-risk industry

In many stores, there is a surge in turnover that leaves them understaffed and underskilled.

There are undeniable challenges facing the quick-service industry, but the impressive results and ambitious growth plans of some of its leading players suggest quick serves are headed for even greater popularity.

A wave of good vibes can be traced back to Baby Boomer-fueled spending expansions and two-income households in the 1980s, when the generation began outsourcing meal preparation in large numbers to accommodate their hectic schedules.

As a result

Restaurants saw an increase in traffic year after year, and quick-service chains expanded their footprint across the country with new locations.

Despite this, they don't

With an acre of people trained in reference interviews, a giant background screening company should perform a professional, efficient job.

You make a product that suits the moment

It is sometimes difficult when you produce large quantities of something to produce high quality products.

As a result of working with the public, Sex Offender and Criminal Records checks are a must.

Making safe, quick hiring decisions in the fast-paced world of food service can be challenging. At True Hire, we understand those challenges, and our background screening program has been tailored to fit the needs of the service industry.

We know what your customers expect from you—a quality product made fast and without mistakes. That is the same standard we hold ourselves to.

✔ Social Security Trace

✔ Sex Offender Registry Search

✔ National Criminal Search

✔ County Criminal Search

For current County of Residence

We understand you need thorough, accurate results quickly.

Which is why our 26 years of business in the screening industry, is there to deliver efficient results and compliance options to process the quantity of reports required for your company.

True Hire's clients are able to receive background check results in just minutes when the results are clear. It is our goal to have the background check complete before your applicants leave your building.

GET IN TOUCH

info@true-hire.com
true-hire.com

11366 Cleveland Ave NW
Uniontown, OH 44685

+800 262 7301